and career ready,

Core Beliefs

Every student can learn and succeed

Disparity and disproportionality can and must be eliminated

Our Diversity is a Strength

Staff must be committed,
collaborative,
caring, and
exemplary

Objectives

- To inform the Board of the processes and procedures implemented in preparation for the recommendation of History/Social Science textbook for adoption 9-12
- The Board will be asked to approve and purchase the following:
 - 9-12 History/Social Science textbook Pearson CA History-Social Science, published by Pearson Scott Foresman and Prentice Hall

Purpose for History/Social Science Adoption

- Replace our currently adopted textbook resource, which is outdated and not aligned to the current CA History/Social Science Framework. The last History/Social Science textbook adoption occurred in 2007
- Updated CA History/Social Science Framework adoption was in 2016. Previous Framework adoption was in 2005.
- New Legislation that made several additions to the Education Code. All publishers must meet the education code and our recommended publishers were approved by the State Board of Education (K-8).
- Identify instructional materials that will be consistent with the K-12 History/Social Science Framework, support instruction in History/Social Science and are diverse like our student body.

History/Social Science Education Code Requirements

- Filipino-American Contributions to World War II
- Filipino-American contributions to the farm labor movement

Senate Bill 48 - The FAIR Act 2012

SB 48 added language to Education Code Section 51204.5, which prescribes the inclusion of the contributions of various groups in the history of California and the United States.

This section already included men and women and numerous ethnic groups.

The expanded language now includes (additions bolded): "...a study of the role and contributions of both men and women, Native Americans, African Americans, Mexican Americans, Asian Americans, Pacific Islanders, European Americans, lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender Americans, persons with disabilities, and members of other ethnic and cultural groups, to the economic, political, and social development of California and the United States of America, with particular emphasis on portraying the role of these groups in contemporary society."

Senate Bill 48 - The FAIR Act 2012

The legislation also added requirements with regard to instructional materials.

Education Code Section 51510 outlines prohibition on material included in textbooks or other instructional materials. This section already includes prohibitions on matter “reflecting adversely upon persons because of their race, sex, color, creed, handicap, national origin, or ancestry”; SB 48 added “sexual orientation” to the list.

Education Code Section 60040 directs Governing Boards to only adopt instructional materials that “accurately portray the cultural and racial diversity of our society.” This section already includes a number of groups, but was amended to include all of those in Section 51204.5 as listed in the previous slide.

How the FAIR Act was a Major Part of the Adoption Process

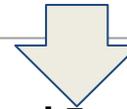

State Board of Education:

- Adopted the History and Social Science Framework in 2016
- The Instructional Quality Commission gave the Publisher recommendations to the State Board of Education

Publishers:

- We requested the publishers give information to the District about how they addressed the FAIR Act at different grade levels.

Leads to this recommendation for adoption:

- Assessments consider diversity and inclusion
- Representation of diverse families and individuals within the curriculum.

Partnership and Feedback:

- UC Davis History Project partnered with NUSD throughout the entire process. 82% of NUSD pilot teachers said that Pearson was the most diverse of the two publishers (n=22)
